Chestnut Grove, Etwall

Sam says:

"This is a wonderful family home that has been loved by the current owners. It has been thoughtfully extended, the lounge has been made bigger, there has been a utility room and WC added. They have converted the garage into a dining room so the space has been maximised for family life. The lounge is a fantastic size with a bow window and to the back there are patio doors which lead out to a lovely conservatory overlooking the most beautiful garden and countryside views. There is a modern kitchen which leads out to a utility room with space for appliances and further storage cupboard space. Upstairs, bedroom one has been transformed into a master suite with the bedroom area leading through to a dressing area with plenty of built in wardrobe space which then leads to an en-suite shower room. There are three further great sized bedrooms and modern re-fitted shower room. Outside to the front there is lots of driveway parking and the back garden is just so beautiful, it has a patio area with a sun canopy. The current owners have put so much love into it and the views to the back are spectacular over the countryside. This will make a very happy home for someone!"

A message from the seller:

"We will be very sorry to leave our home but due to mobility problems we cannot maintain it how we would like and are now hoping to move to a bungalow to make life a lot easier. The neighbors are lovely, and the views over our back garden are so pleasant, the garden being private and south facing. Our three children all attended the local primary school situated next to the village play area which is well equipped, and then on to John Port where they all attended a high standard of education. The village has many facilities, such as the church, a leisure centre, shops, pharmacist, hairdressers, three pubs (one of which is also a hotel), post office, cricket club, bowls club, dentist, three takeaway shops, and we also hold a Well Dressing event annually. The village is friendly and welcoming and I am sure that if you decide to make it your home, you will be as happy as we have been."
