Hereford, Herefordshire HR2 0DT

Sitting in approximately 1.5 acres and situated in a truly stunning rural location enjoying splendid views of the Black Mountains and Garway Hill
A charming three bedroom stone fronted detached family home plus a separate self-contained two bedroom Scandinavian style lodge home

Two cosy reception rooms | Traditionally styled modern kitchen | Family bathroom and en-suite facility

Outbuildings: home office, stable block with 2 loose boxes & tack room with yard, store, workshop, kennel block | Two paddocks & chicken runs

Perfect for those seeking a multi-generational home with versatile outbuildings offering income potential and / or a country homeworking environment

This charming and hugely versatile smallholding is situated in an idyllic location within the small parish of Walterstone, an area noted for its outstanding natural beauty sitting on the Herefordshire / Monmouthshire border. The property is surrounded by farmland and enjoys distant panoramic views across the stunning, surrounding countryside over the famous Black Mountains to the west and towards Garway Hill to the east. Despite enjoying the benefit of such a rural position, the A465 link road is only 2.5 miles distant and the villages of Longtown and Ewyas Harold are only 2 and 3 miles away respectively. The historic market town of Abergavenny is approximately 8 miles to the south while the Cathedral City of Hereford is just under 15 miles to the north.

This extended three bedroomed stone fronted period home includes a two bedroomed detached Scandinavian Lodge home / holiday let (748sqft/69.6sqm) which provides excellent ancillary or guest accommodation for multi-generational living or as a holiday letting business and in all stands in approximately 1.5 acres of grounds encompassing formal gardens, a large vegetable garden, a wildlife pond and enclosed paddocks plus a range of outbuildings. The principal accommodation in the main house comprises a lovely sitting room with bay window and French doors opening to the garden and for those winter evenings, benefits from a cosy HETA log burner. There is a separate dining room with an attractive stone fireplace hosting a further log burner, with this room opening into a traditionally styled modern kitchen. Adjoining the kitchen is a lean to utility area and ground floor cloakroom. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms with an en-suite facility to the master bedroom, plus a separate family bathroom.

The useful outbuildings facilitate a versatility to the property which buyers seeking a home offering flexible living opportunities will find appealing. The current owners have successfully operated an occasional dog training centre and a professional therapy service from their home, but the property could equally be adapted to other purposes to suit. The outbuildings include the Lodge sitting in its own garden, a separate, insulated garden home office, a large workshop which has been historically used as a dog training room but would suit a variety of other purposes, a partially heated Kennel facility, a stable block with enclosed yard including two loose boxes and a tack/feed room, plus several chicken runs.

SITUATION | Situated in a country lane setting amidst the beautiful scenic backdrop of the surrounding Herefordshire countryside. Walterstone is a small rural parish, ideally placed close to the Welsh border and the Brecon Beacons National Park with road links to the Monmouthshire market town of Abergavenny (about 8 miles) and the Cathedral City of Hereford (15 miles approx).

Of historical interest there is a motte and bailey castle in the village plus an iron age fort nearby with Llanthony Priory and Hay on Wye and the greater area is widely favoured by outside sports enthusiasts, walkers and hill runners alike who are drawn to the River Monnow and the Cat's Back, thought to be one of the most spectacular walks of the Black Mountains. For refreshment and sustenance, the favoured Carpenters Arms is a short distance away.

For comprehensive shopping and leisure facilities, Abergavenny has a wide selection of boutique style shops, grocery and newsagent stores, supermarkets, and many well-known high street shops. Abergavenny also hosts a market several times a week and a highly regarded world-famous annual Food Festival. The town has its own cinema and leisure centre as well as several restaurants for evening entertainment.

Railway stations at Hereford and Abergavenny have regular services into central London via Newport, whilst road links in Abergavenny give easy access to the motorway for Bristol, Birmingham, the Southwest and London and "A" routes for Monmouth, Cwmbran and Cardiff.
