SITUATION This charming property lies within the heart of Rye's historic citadel and conservation area. Renowned for its cobbled streets, medieval fortifications and fine period architecture, Rye offers a unique blend of heritage and modern convenience. The town provides an excellent range of shopping, health and leisure facilities, alongside a vibrant selection of cafés, restaurants, pubs and hotels. Increasingly recognised as a cultural hub, Rye is home to numerous galleries, independent craft shops, the popular Kino cinema, and hosts the annual Rye Arts and International Jazz Festival. Surrounded by the breathtaking Romney Marsh countryside and located just a short distance from the coast, the area offers a wealth of scenic walks and outdoor pursuits, both on land and water. Rye also benefits from convenient rail links to Eastbourne and Brighton, as well as to Ashford, where high-speed services connect to London St Pancras in approximately 37 minutes.

This well presented second floor apartment offers spacious and versatile accommodation.

At the base of the staircase leading to the apartment's private entrance, there is a useful area for cloaks and shoes, a practicality that continues within the welcoming hallway above, where further storage space is available.

The heart of the home is a particularly impressive open-plan living, dining and kitchen area, creating a wonderfully sociable environment. The kitchen is fitted with a range of modern units and integrated appliances, and enjoys a pleasant outlook over the communal garden.

To the front, the living space takes full advantage of elevated views across the rooftops of Rye and the characterful street scene below, offering a unique vantage point, allowing you to feel immersed in the life of the town while remaining a quiet observer above it.

Notably, this expansive living area was formerly arranged as three separate rooms. This configuration could be reinstated if desired, or alternatively, part of the space could be partitioned to create a third bedroom, offering excellent flexibility for changing needs.

There are two generous double bedrooms, both benefitting from a good range of built-in storage. The principal bedroom enjoys the added convenience of an en-suite shower room, while the second bedroom is served by a contemporary main bathroom. Both bath and shower rooms are stylishly appointed and feature underfloor heating for added comfort.

OUTSIDE

The property also benefits from access to a part-walled communal garden, shared with the apartment below. Steps from the first-floor landing lead down to an outdoor space ideal for al fresco dining and relaxation. With its blend of character, flexibility and prime central location, this apartment is ideally suited as a main residence, a lock-up-and-leave holiday home, or a highly attractive investment opportunity.
