Location...

Buckhurst Close is a cul de sac located in the popular New Malling area of Lewes. The area benefits from a highly-regarded primary school, local shop and numerous children's recreation grounds; higher education can also be found in Lewes. Scenic walks can also be found within moments of the property along the former Railway cutting. There is also a regular local bus service with services to Lewes and Brighton.

The High Street is just a 20-minute walk (source Google Maps), and Lewes Mainline Railways Station is a little further with direct services to London, Brighton and Gatwick.

Lewes town centre offers an array of shops, public houses, and restaurants. There is a wealth of charm and character to this historic market town, which is home to Anne of Cleves House, Lewes Castle and Priory Ruins. The Depot Cinema, leisure centre and Pells open air swimming pool can also be found around the town centre.
