Location...

Oakmede Way is a peaceful cul-de-sac of similar properties built at a similar time and enjoys easy level access to the village centre with its parade of local shops, Doctors Surgery and Pharmacy.

Ringmer- A village with a great sense of community and plenty to offer for those who want to take part, yet peaceful enough to enjoy the more rural surrounding for those that prefer the quieter village lifestyle.

Located in the heart of the village is a parade of well serviced, mostly independent shops, including a popular butcher, a Café, a bakery and the Morrisons Local houses the local Post Office. The village also offers a coffee shop, hairdressers, dentist, modern health centre and a pharmacy.

The village is flanked by South Downs National Park. There are beautiful and iconic walks all around and at the highest point, between Ringmer and Glyde provides magnificent far reaching views to the River Ouse, the Ashdown Forest and across Lewes.

Ringmer hosts a plethora of sports and activity clubs catering for all ages including a football team, stoolball, cricket, bowls, croquet. The Anchor Inn and The Green Man public houses are popular choices within the village, with The Cock Inn located on the outskirts, with all three-offering dining and traditional pub gardens to be enjoyed in fairer weather
