Generously sized detached family home with extended accommodation of about 1770 ft² / 164 m²
Three bedrooms | Three reception rooms | Sunroom | Kitchen / breakfast room | Utility room | Cloakroom / WC
Principal bedroom with en-suite bathroom & a separate family shower room

Two driveways, off street parking, carport & integral garage | Beautiful gardens with hillside views of the Sugar Loaf and the Black Mountains
Village location within walking distance of a favoured primary school and the local pub | Countryside, river & canal walks all close-by

This is a super-sized three bedroomed detached family home offering a generous amount of accommodation planned over one floor. Sitting in beautiful gardens with exceptional southerly views of Llangattock Hillside and in the opposite direction towards the peak of the Sugar Loaf Mountain, this home enjoys an excellent setting in the popular village of Llangattock which is situated just across the river bridge from the pretty market town of Crickhowell in the Bannau Brycheiniog National Park.

This home has been recently upgraded by its owners to include new roofs to both the bungalow and the sunroom, a new en-suite bathroom to the principal bedroom, new flooring and re-decoration throughout, plus a new entrance door and some replacement windows to allow the light to better circulate and the hillside views to shine through. Overall, the accommodation includes three bedrooms, three reception rooms, a sunroom, a modern kitchen / breakfast room with new granite worktops and a central island unit, a separate utility room and a newly fitted cloakroom / wc.

Outside, there is plenty of parking on its two driveways, plus an integral garage with electric door and a carport to the front. Gated access leads into the garden at the rear which has been dog-proofed with the installation of new fencing supporting the mature hedging around the boundaries. The lawn is bordered by two seating areas by the sunroom and at the top of the garden providing several seating choices from which to admire the surrounding view.

SITUATION | Llangattock is a favoured residential village set amongst the stunning scenery of the Brecon Beacons National Park alongside the banks of the River Usk with the popular market town of Crickhowell lying just across the river bridge. The Monmouthshire and Brecon Canal passes through the village which is home to a thriving community and St Catwg's Church, which is believed to be one of the oldest churches in Wales, dating from the 6th Century.

Winner of the Best High Street in Britain in the Great British High Street Awards, Crickhowell and the surrounding villages are highly regarded amongst the walking community and are a haven for both walkers and tourists alike. The town is famed for its family run and independent businesses including several grocers, a butcher, a delicatessen, a baker, Wales's first zero waste shop, and a newsagent/post office. In addition, there are several individual boutiques, cafes, a book shop which attracts famous authors to its doors, and a florist, plus of course Cric, the tourist information centre.

Crickhowell also benefits from dentist surgeries, a health centre, a garage, and the iconic Webbs hardware store. There are numerous public houses, gastro pubs and restaurants, and no description of Crickhowell would be complete without mentioning The Bear which has been serving customers since 1432 and stands in a prominent position at the head of the high street in the centre of this bustling town.

The area is also well served for schools for all ages, both of which are fêted in both the local area and further afield too. Children enjoy the facilities of schools in both Llangattock and Crickhowell but do travel further afield to Christ College in Brecon and the Monmouth Haberdashers' schools which are easily accessible.

For more comprehensive shopping and leisure facilities, the historic market town of Abergavenny is just 7 miles away and offers a wide selection of boutique style shops, grocery and newsagent stores, supermarkets, and many well-known high street shops. Abergavenny also hosts a market several times a week. The town has its own cinema and leisure centre as well as several eateries for evening entertainment. Abergavenny railway station has regular services into central London via Newport, whilst road links at the Hardwick roundabout give easy access to the motorway for Bristol, Birmingham, the Southwest and London and "A" routes for Monmouth, Hereford, Cwmbran, and Cardiff.
