Location...

Laughton is a picturesque village just 6.5 miles to the East of Lewes. The village benefits from a primary school, a community owned village shop and post office and a popular public house. A regular and late running bus service offers routes to Lewes, Eastbourne and Brighton and mainline train services are available at Berwick, Uckfield and Lewes. Many scenic walks and bridleways are also within striking distance of the property with access to the local countryside and woodland.

The nearby village of Ringmer is considered to be one of the largest villages in East Sussex. A village with a great sense of community and plenty to offer for those who want to take part, yet peaceful enough to enjoy the more rural surrounding for those that prefer the quieter village lifestyle. Located in the heart of the village is a parade of well serviced, mostly independent shops. Surrounded by the South Downs National Park, there are beautiful and iconic walks all around, with magnificent views across the River Ouse, Ashdown Forest and across the county town of Lewes.
