Bildeston, Ipswich

Located in the heart of the charming and well-served village of Bildeston, this beautifully presented Grade II listed home offers a perfect mix of period character and contemporary living. Formerly the village post office, the property has been thoughtfully updated by the current owners to create a stylish and spacious four-bedroom home that's ready to move into.

The front door opens directly into a welcoming family room, a warm and inviting space with exposed beams, fully carpeted and excellent proportions. From here, you step through to the characterful dining room, which in turn leads into a beautifully styled sitting room, complete with a feature fireplace and garden views. There is also access to a useful cellar – ideal for storage.

At the rear of the property sits the kitchen, which has been newly fitted in recent times to include a Range Master cooker, space for an American-style fridge/freezer, an integrated dishwasher, a wine cooler, and a breakfast bar beneath stylish pendant lighting. A useful utility room and ground floor WC complete the downstairs layout.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom includes an exposed Inglenook fireplace, timber beams, and generous proportions. The generous en-suite bathroom includes a freestanding ball and claw bath, a traditional basin, and built-in mirror-fronted wardrobes. There are three further good-sized bedrooms and a well-appointed family shower room.
