This substantial family home blends character charm with practical living space. At the heart of the home is a semi open-plan kitchen flowing into a bright dining and casual living area, ideal for family life and informal gatherings, with direct access to the sunny garden. A separate formal lounge features an open fire, and two additional reception rooms provide versatility as a dining room, snug, or home office.

A ground floor shower room, utility room, and dedicated study area enhance functionality and convenience.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom benefits from an en suite shower room, while four further bedrooms are served by a well-appointed family bathroom. Most rooms enjoy dual-aspect windows, flooding the home with natural light. A gas-fired central heating system is in place, with the boiler replaced within the last two years.

The outside space is a standout feature, with a large, secluded south-facing front garden offering excellent privacy and room to relax or entertain. A double garage with electric door is complemented by hard standing suitable for a boat, and off-road parking for three vehicles. A garden shed offers additional storage.

Location

Located within walking distance of Poole Harbour via Bingham Avenue, this home is ideally placed for enjoying the area's natural beauty and coastal lifestyle. The award-winning beach at Sandbanks is within 2 miles, while local shopping and dining can be found in nearby Ashley Cross and Lilliput. The property sits within the catchment area for Lilliput First and Baden Powell schools. Parkstone Golf Course, yacht clubs, and scenic harbour walks are all close by, with strong transport links via Parkstone rail station and access to the A338, M27, and regional airports.
