Offered for sale with no onward chain, this charming 4 bedroom detached house presents an ideal family abode in a sought-after location. The property boasts a delightful brick & flint exterior, complete with its own section of woodland and private access leading to the serene Common Wood.

The interior of the property opens to a spacious and inviting entrance hall, featuring a cloakroom, convenient under stair storage, and internal access to the garage. The ground floor further impresses with a generous sitting room offering patio doors to the garden, a striking feature fireplace, and double doors leading to the dining room. The well-equipped kitchen/breakfast room includes a door to the conservatory, perfect for enjoying the surrounding natural beauty.

Upstairs, the principal bedroom features a range of fitted cupboards and a recently refitted ensuite shower room, while two additional double bedrooms and a fourth bedroom/office with fitted furniture are all serviced by the recently updated family bathroom.

Outside, a resin driveway leads to a double garage at the front of the property, while the rear garden offers an ultra-private setting amidst a beautiful backdrop. A wide terrace leads to a level lawn area surrounded by mature shrubs and borders, with a garden gate providing access to the private woodland and Common Wood beyond.
