Set on the ground floor of a striking Edwardian villa, this beautifully presented apartment blends timeless character with modern living. Impeccably presented throughout, it offers generous room sizes, soaring ceilings, and elegant period detailing. At the heart of the home lies a spacious kitchen/dining/day room, ideal for everyday living and entertaining, with large sash windows which flood the interiors with natural light. The large bay window, with cushioned window seat and storage, is an absolute feature of this room. The kitchen is fitted with an extensive range of cupboards and many integrated appliances. Running parallel to this impressive room is the lounge with a large bay window and feature fireplace. The principal bedroom features built-in wardrobes and a stylish en suite shower room. The second bedroom is equally spacious and adaptable for guests, work, or family. This is serviced by the family bathroom. The south-facing private garden provides a tranquil setting for outdoor relaxation and alfresco dining. Two allocated off-road parking spaces add practicality. Ready to move into, this property combines charm, space, and convenience in one of the area's most desirable settings.
