16 Rocks Park Road

Uckfield

A beautifully renovated three double bedroom detached modern family home, situated in an elevated position with a detached garage and occupying a stunning plot of 0.14 of an acre and within walking distance of Rocks Park Primary, town centre and railway station.

The property is entered via a hallway with the cloakroom found nearby, there is a generous size sitting room with sliding doors that continue into a double aspect dining room. The kitchen/breakfast room has been fitted with a matching range of contemporary units.

This impressive home has been completely renovated and finished to an exacting standard. The property sits well behind a front lawn and has tremendous scope for enlargement to the side and rear. The rear garden is a particular feature of the property, with a flagstone seating terrace and shallow steps that lead to a large lawn.
