Step into a light-filled interior via a unique split-level entrance hall featuring a striking solid oak staircase. The expansive open-plan kitchen/breakfast/dining room lies at the heart of the home, opening seamlessly into a bright conservatory with insulated roof and garden access—ideal for entertaining. The shaker-style kitchen boasts granite worktops, integrated appliances, and a Smeg range cooker.

A beautifully proportioned sitting room with bay window and French doors leads to the terrace and landscaped garden, while a stone fireplace with open fire (and gas point) adds charm. A ground floor study/snug, cloakroom, and utility room (with potential for en suite conversion) offer flexibility for family living or guest accommodation. Upstairs, four generously sized double bedrooms all include fitted wardrobes, served by three stylish bathrooms—two en suites and a family bathroom with bath and separate shower. Additional cloakrooms, extensive solid oak flooring, coving, and quality finishes throughout elevate the home's appeal.

Outside, electric gates open to a block-paved drive, detached pitched-roof double garage, and secure parking for at least three vehicles or a boat. The home benefits from double glazing, gas central heating and stunning leafy views from every room.

Location

Located in one of Lilliput's most desirable areas, this home is within a mile of Salterns Marina, the Blue Lagoon, Parkstone Golf Club, and local shops. It falls within the catchment for Lilliput First School and Baden Powell. Poole Park, Sandbanks, Branksome Beach, and Canford Cliffs Village are all nearby, with scenic harbourside and chine walks leading to the coast. Parkstone mainline station (1.2 miles) offers excellent transport link to London Waterloo.
