LOCATION

The property lies in a prominent position on Don Street, within a popular area for office, retail and residential uses. It is within close proximity to all town centre amenities including the primary retail pitches of King Street and Queen Street, the central market, as well as Minden Place multi storey car park.

ACCOMMODATION

The retail unit has direct access from the street, whilst the office accommodation and the apartment enjoy separate access via an internal staircase, also accessed via Don Street. There is an internal staircase to the rear providing access between ground and first floor. The building provides a good level of specification throughout, and a new electric heating system has been installed through throughout the building. The Net Internal Area of the floor areas are as follows: Ground floor (retail) 763 sqft (70.94 m2) First floor (office) 778 sqft (72.29 m2) 2nd floor (office) 792 sqft (73.62 m2) Third (apartment) Living/dining room, kitchen, bathroom, one double bedroom, connecting bedroom/study and balcony. Total 2,333 sqft (216.74m2)

TENURE

The Gross current rent income for the whole building is £60,400 per annum.

ASKING PRICE

The opportunity exists to acquire the freehold of 50, Don Street, subject to the above noted lease, for a consideration of £595,000 exclusive of GST as applicable. A sale at this level would reflect a Gross Yield of 10.15% on the gross income.
