High Hurstwood, Uckfield

A beautifully positioned 4 bedroom 3 bathroom detached period character cottage occupying a pleasant corner plot adjoining the neighbouring farmland and countryside to the rear. Situated off a country lane within walking distance to the Public Inn.

Pheasants Cottage is believed to date from 1690 and the current owners have extended and significantly improved the home over the years. The property lies well within its plot having landscaped gardens and ample parking to the front and the rear enjoying fine rural views across the adjoining farmland and countryside beyond. The extension is an impressive addition, accessed separately affording open plan living accommodation on the ground floor and an en-suite bedroom on the first floor. Most rooms throughout the property boast a wealth of period features and enjoy a double aspect. Planning permission has been granted to enlarge the kitchen and create a vaulted breakfast room. Planning reference: WD/2013/0590/F.
