Fair Place is a short cul-de-sac situated off South Road (opposite the primary school) within a few minutes' walk of all the village facilities including the local shop with post office and delicatessen and the popular local pub/restaurant, the Cock Inn. The countryside surrounding the village is interspersed with footpaths and bridleways linking with woodland and both Ditchling and Chailey common nature reserves. The village primary school is very well regarded and children from the village catch a school bus to Chailey Secondary School in nearby South Chailey. The towns of Haywards Heath and Burgess Hill are both about 3.5 miles distant where there are extensive shopping and recreational facilities, railway stations and leisure centres. By road, access to the major surrounding areas can be swiftly gained via the B2112, the A272 (Haywards Heath relief road) and A/M23 which lies about 8 miles to the west at Bolney. Distances in miles approx.
