ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Restrictive Covenants

Restrictive Covenants and Pastoral (Church Buildings Disposal) Scheme. Restrictive covenants will be included in the transfer of the property to ensure that the approved development is carried forward. Further details of these are available from the agents. A closed Church of England church is sold under special legal provision - a Pastoral (Church Buildings Disposal) Scheme is the legal document empowering the Church Commissioners to sell a closed church for a specific use. The sale of the church would, therefore, be subject to the making of such a scheme following public consultation. Further details about the procedures involved may be found on the Commissioners' website.

Grade II Listed Building

The building is Grade II Listed. Number:1144838 on the Historic England website.

Externally

There is a provisional area of possible garden/amenity space for inclusion in the sale, this plan indicates a provisional area of possible garden/amenity space for inclusion in the sale.

There are burials and memorials in the area being sold and there is no intention that they would be moved, protection of burials and memorials will be written into the transfer conditions. The churchyard contains some medieval memorials as well as grave markers from the late 18th Century. We understand that there is limited burial capacity in the churchyard, in the area behind the church, which is not included in the proposed provisional garden space.

Parking - On street

Services

Mains electricity. Mains water. Electric boiler and wet heating (unused and untested since at least 2012). There is no foul drainage from the Church, however the village of Croglin does have mains drainage, and a purchaser should investigate connecting to this. Rights can be granted to run services under the churchyard path. Please note: the mention of any appliances/services within these particulars does not imply that they are in full and efficient working order.

Land Registry Title

The property is not registered and the purchaser would need to register it after the sale completes.

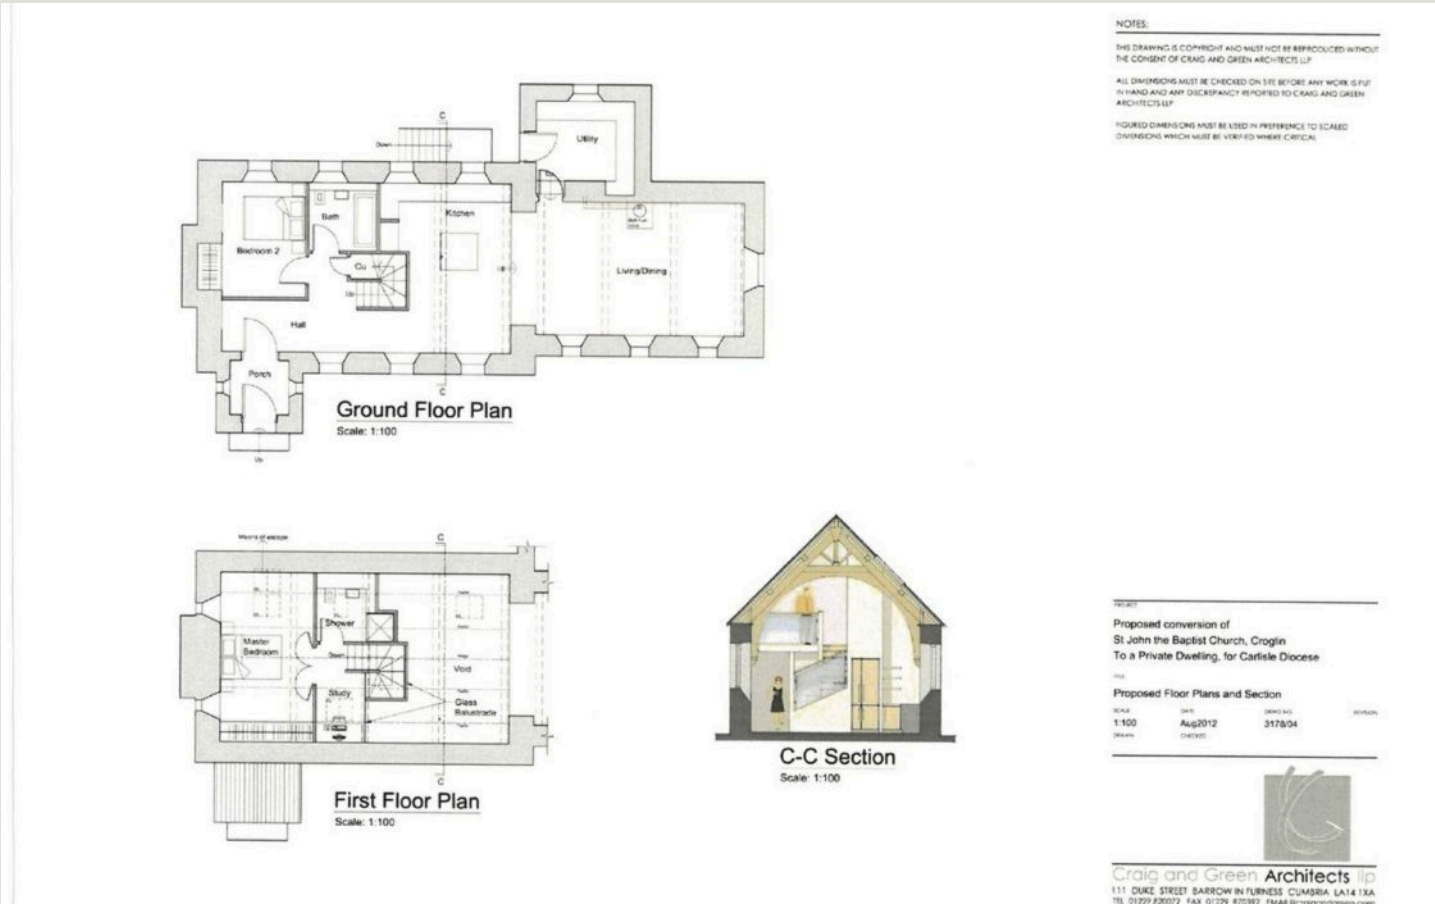

Potential Residential Conversion

Previously, pre-application advice from the local planning authority has indicated that a scheme for conversion to a single residential dwelling would be supported by Eden District Council (now W&F). The plans included on this brochure are for illustrative purposes only and indicate how residential accommodation might be provided within the building. However, other suitable uses would also be considered by the vendors. Completion of the sale of the property would be subject to the grant of planning permission and listed building consent, with the latter requiring the submission of a statement of heritage significance.
