Offered with No Onward Chain this detached 2 bedroom bungalow.

Introducing this charming 2 bedroom detached bungalow onto the market, presenting a rare opportunity with no onward chain.

Boasting a desirable arrangement, this property features two well-proportioned bedrooms, providing comfortable living spaces. Adding value to the property are the garage, carport, and driveway, offering convenient parking solutions for residents and guests alike.

Equipped with a fitted kitchen, preparing meals is a breeze in this functional yet cosy space. The conservatory stands out as a delightful area to relax and enjoy the natural surroundings. While the property showcases a timeless appeal, some updating is required, affording the next owners the chance to put their personal touch on the space and tailor it to their preferences.

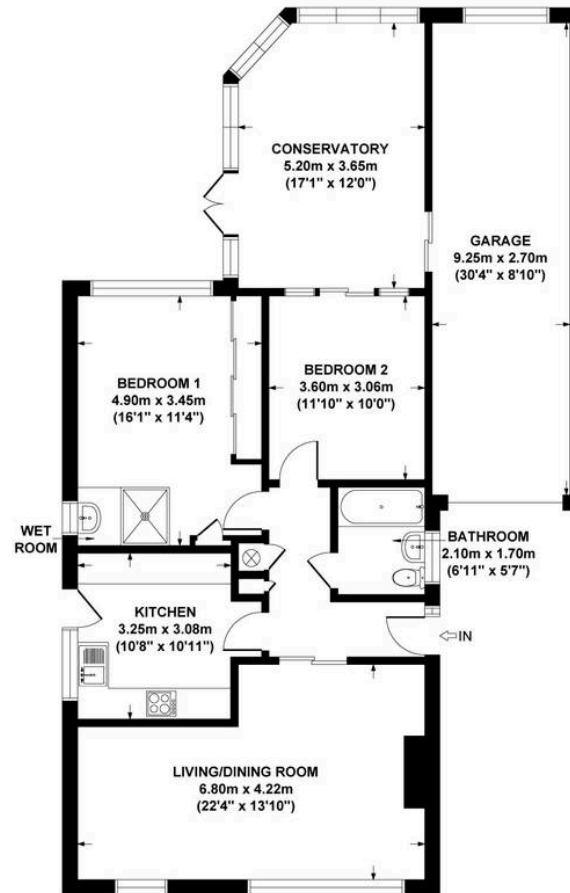

The sitting room/diner is a versatile zone for both entertaining and every-day living, providing ample room for furniture arrangements and social gatherings. With this being the first time on the market, this property presents a rare occasion to acquire a home that has been well-cared for and cherished by its previous occupants, ready to create new memories with its new owners.

Situated in a sought-after location, this property ensures convenience with access to amenities, schools, and transport links, catering to a variety of lifestyle needs. Enjoy the tranquillity of suburban living while being within reach of urban conveniences, striking the perfect balance for residents seeking a peaceful retreat with modern comforts at their fingertips.
