62 Greenside

Kendal, Cumbria

Set high above Kendal town, within one of the most sought after addresses Kendal offers Greenside, this 5-bedroom home presents an exceptional opportunity for those seeking an elegant Victorian townhouse ready for a full renovation project. Encapsulating a blend of potential and character, this property spans four floors, offering ample space for customisation and value addition.

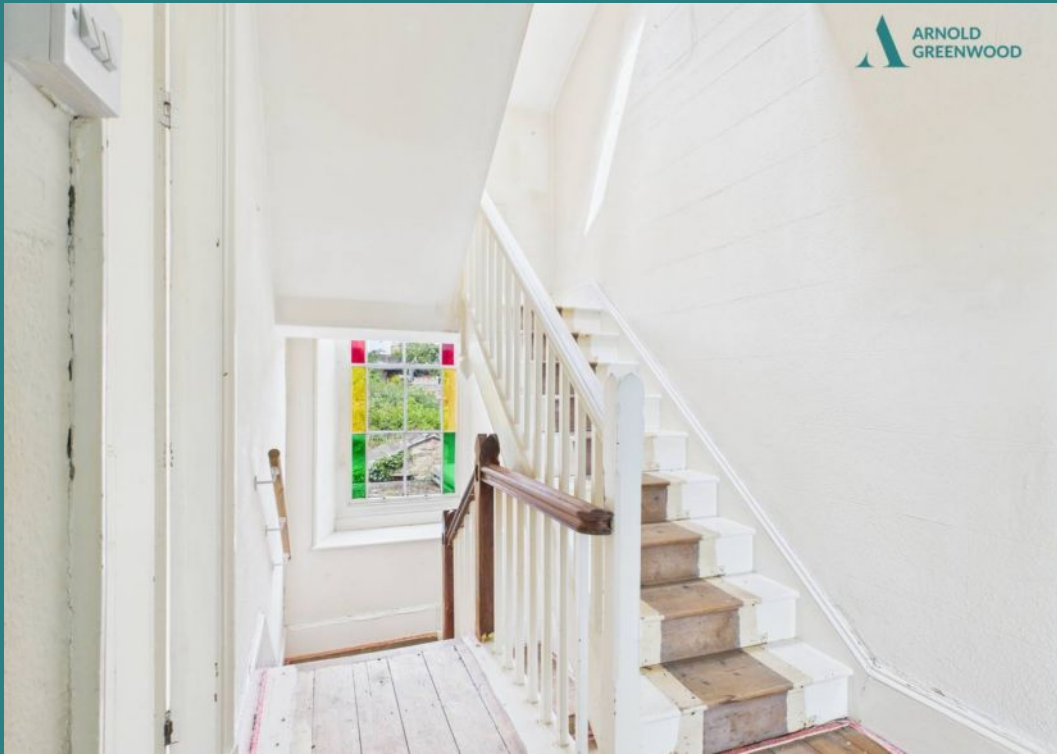

The ground floor provides a versatile area that, with the right permits, could transform into coveted Airbnb accommodation or a cosy holiday let. The inner hall grand in size and features, opens into a spacious living room with a beautiful original marble fireplace, alcove storage, a focal bay window offering far reaching views. Making your way through towards the back of the property you will find an additional reception room with original Victorian fireplace and surround, and a traditional style fitted kitchen with vast potential for extension. The property reveals five well-appointed bedrooms spread across the second and third floors with a sizable family bathroom suite, ensuring flexible living arrangements to suit any lifestyle.

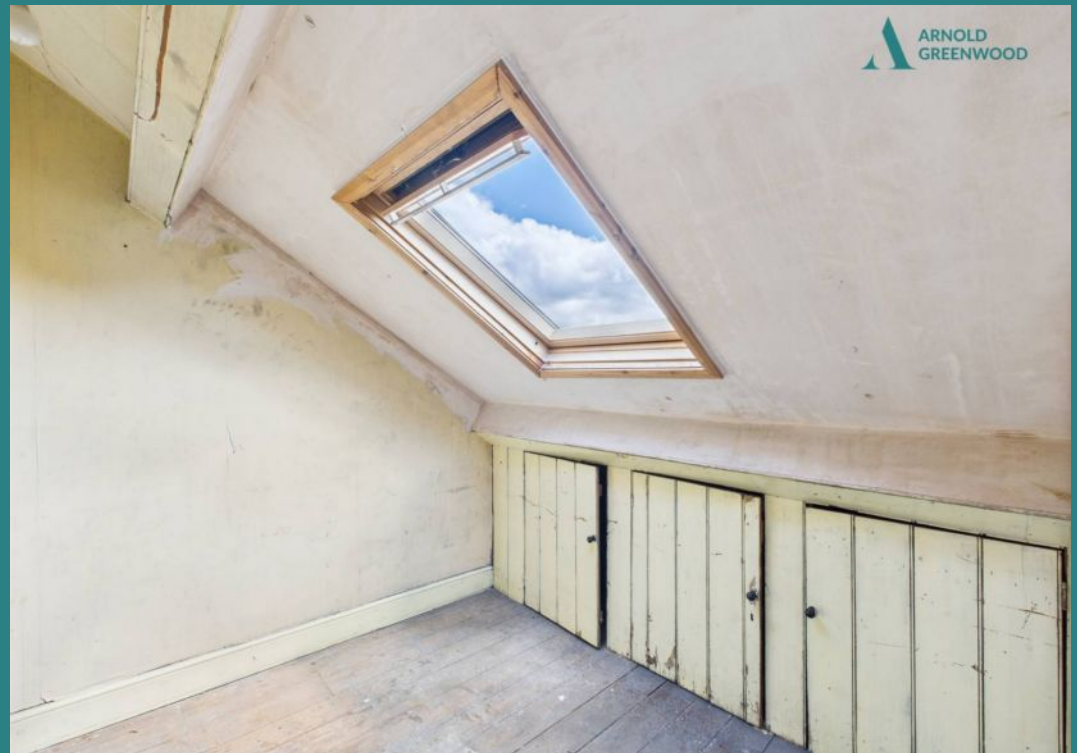

GARDEN

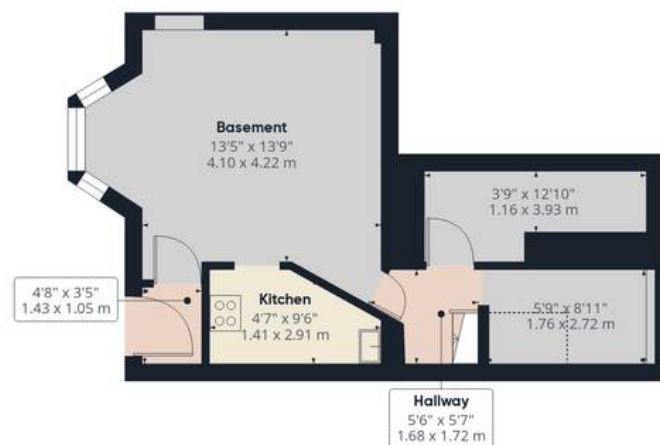

Generous garden featuring a storage shed and a paved area, offering versatile outdoor use. The property benefits from rights of access to the rear, where neighbouring properties have developed private home offices and garages, presenting further potential for additional parking or outbuildings (subject to necessary consents).
