Kleinwort Close forms part of the Anchor Hanover retirement-built Hurst Place complex on the western edge of Haywards Heath town centre within a short walk of local pubs, restaurants and town centre. The complex adjoins Beech Hurst Gardens where there is a family restaurant/pub, wonderful gardens with children's play areas, a miniature steam railway, tennis courts and is home of Haywards Heath lawn bowls club. Countryside is virtually on the doorstep and Paiges Meadow is across the road providing some wonderful country walks. Cuckfield's village High Street is a 1.25 mile walk to the west where there are numerous shops, boutiques, restaurants, pubs and church. The town's fashionable Broadway with its numerous restaurants, cafes and bars is within easy walk whilst the town centre is as close where there is an extensive range of shops and stores including a Marks & Spencer store. Within the grounds is the new AGE UK Centre and BUPA's fabulous Goldbridge Care Home. A regular bus service runs past the entrance to the development linking with the town, station, the Princess Royal Hospital and neighbouring districts.

By road, access to the major surrounding areas can be swiftly gained via the A272 and A/M23 which lies about 4.5 miles to the west at Bolney or Warninglid.
