The village of Buckland nestles at the foot of the Chiltern Hills in a semi-rural idyll. Either side of the very attractive and leafy no through village lane are various period and individual houses, an historic church and a Rothschild village hall. From the property one can access a myriad of footpaths within open countryside plus canal towpaths (Aylesbury arm & Wendover arm). Close by is the village of Aston Clinton which offers numerous facilities including a large and attractive park, a doctor's surgery and pharmacy, a well-regarded primary school and a Post Office/Store. A short drive leads to Tring and Wiltstone reservoirs with its popular farm shop and café, Wendover Woods, Chiltern Forest and Weston Turville golf clubs and of course the beautiful Chiltern Hills. Stoke Mandeville hospital is 5 miles distance. More comprehensive shopping facilities and schools for all ages groups are available at the nearby market towns of Aylesbury, Tring and Berkhamsted whilst Milton Keynes shopping centre is some 40 minute drive. Buckland is within easy reach of the A41 bypass providing easy access to the motorway network. Railway Stations are at Tring, Stoke Mandeville and Wendover.
