Woodlands Road is located off Mayflower Road which, in turn, is located off the western end of New England Road on the town's rejuvenated eastern side. Local schools within a short walk include Warden Park Primary Academy, St Wilfrid's, St Joseph's and Oathall Community College (all within a 10/15 minute walk). The town centre is just over half a mile distant where there is an extensive range of shops and stores whilst the town's trendy Broadway has several restaurants, cafes and bars. There are numerous leisure groups, sports clubs and a leisure centre. An alleyway from Fields End Close leads through to Pineham Copse giving swift access to the Princess Royal Hospital. Lindfield's picturesque village High Street can be easily accessed on foot, via the Scrase Valley nature reserve, where there is a traditional range of shops, boutiques, great pubs and restaurants, the landmark duckpond and large common which hosts several events throughout the year. The railway station provides a fast commuter service to London, Gatwick Airport and Brighton, is just over a mile on foot. By road, access to the major surrounding areas can be gained via the A272 and A/M23, the latter lying about 6 miles to the west at Bolney or Warninglid. There are several beauty spots in the local area including the 180 acre Ardingly Reservoir, both Ditchling and Chailey Common Nature Reserves, the South Downs National Park and the Ashdown Forest.
