Introducing this beautifully presented, exceptionally well-maintained one-bedroom park home, located within the highly sought-after Cambridge Lodge Park and offered to the market with no onward chain.

Set behind its own private entrance, the home enjoys a delightful wrap-around garden with far-reaching views across open fields. External steps lead up to the front door, opening into a welcoming hallway that provides access to the kitchen, bedroom and bathroom.

The well-appointed kitchen offers ample wall and base units, integrated appliances, and space for additional freestanding items, all complemented by wooden worktops and modern laminate flooring. From here, you enter the spacious living and dining area, perfectly sized for a large sofa, coffee table, TV unit and a four-seater dining table. This bright and inviting room also features an electric fireplace and French doors opening onto a raised decking area, ideal for relaxing or entertaining.

The generous double bedroom enjoys wonderful views over the fields, where spotting local wildlife is a common treat. It includes large fitted wardrobes with plenty of room for extra furniture, and benefits from its own en-suite shower room complete with hand basin and heated towel rail. Completing the accommodation is a separate modern WC fitted with a white suite and hand basin.
