Nestled between the Chiltern Hills and the Vale of Aylesbury, Princes Risborough combines countryside charm with excellent commuter links. The town offers a traditional High Street with independent shops, cafés and pubs, a strong community atmosphere, and access to beautiful walking and cycling routes, including the famous Whiteleaf Cross. Princes Risborough station provides regular trains to London in under 45 minutes, and nearby road links connect easily to the M40 and surrounding towns. It's a sought-after location for those seeking a balance of rural beauty and modern convenience.

A modern two double bedroom semi-detached home, tucked away in a cul-de-sac and offering off-street parking, an enclosed west-facing rear garden and excellent access to Princes Risborough town centre and railway station.

The accommodation comprises an entrance hall leading to a contemporary kitchen and a bright dual-aspect sitting room. Also on the ground floor is a versatile double bedroom or study featuring French doors opening directly onto the rear garden.

To the first floor is a dual-aspect principal bedroom with fitted wardrobes and useful eaves storage, complemented by a modern three-piece en-suite shower room.

Externally, the enclosed west-facing rear garden features a patio area with raised beds, ideal for outdoor dining and gardening. The property is also within walking distance of a rural footpath at Parkmill, providing a pleasant and direct route into the town centre, while Princes Risborough railway station is easily accessible on foot.
