Oakridge The Street

Poynings, Brighton

Nestled at the foot of the South Downs National Park, this superb four bedroom detached home offers a modern and sophisticated living experience in the charming village of Poynings, it features outstanding elevated views over the open countryside towards the North Downs. It is individually built and situated within a privately gated community being one of 3 houses and 4 cottages.

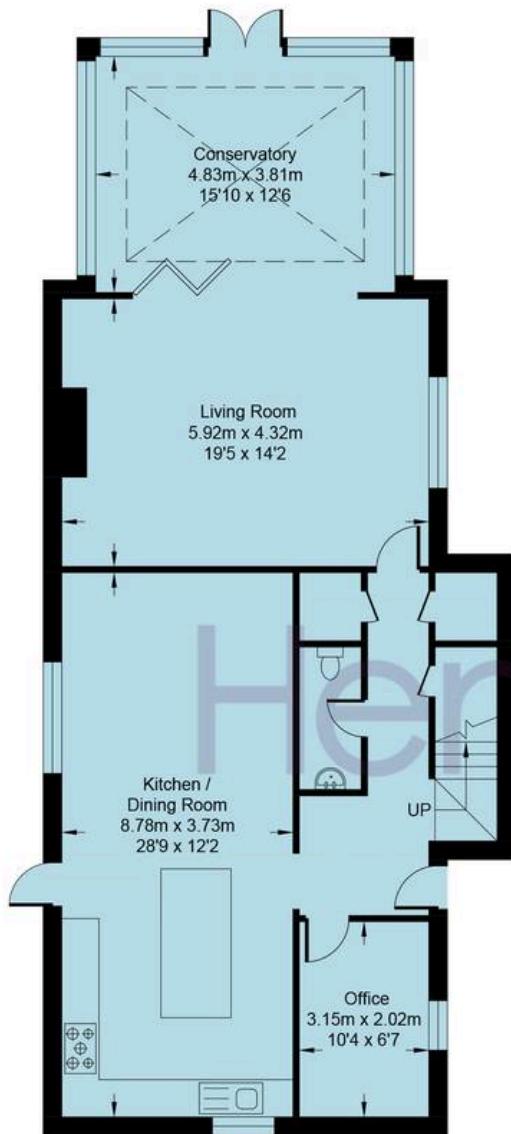

Step inside to discover a recently refitted, modern, and contemporary kitchen that is a chef's delight. The heart features a generous proportioned living room that centres around a brick built fireplace with an inset log burner - ideal for crisp winter evenings . The living room opens up to a spacious Conservatory/Orangery, providing a perfect spot to relax and entertain, with stunning views over the rear gardens and beyond to the North Downs.

The Main Bedroom is a very quiet haven, complete with a separate dressing room, built in wardrobes and a modern en-suite bathroom, offering a private retreat within the home. Three additional bedrooms provide ample space for family or guests.

For convenience, a double car barn provides covered parking, ensuring your vehicles are sheltered all year round within this privately gated community. Outside, the property's charm is enhanced by its manicured gardens that offer a serene outdoor space. There is also an elevated decked terrace with a timber built garden room/studio where you can relax with evening drinks whilst watching the sunset within the summer months.
