The property forms part of Linden Homes' Fox Hill development on the southern rural outskirts of town. Woodland is close by with footpaths linking with the neighbouring districts and villages. The Fox and Hounds pub is within a 5-10 mins walk located on Fox Hill (B2112) where there are bus stops linking with the town centre, station, neighbouring towns and Brighton. Both Chailey and Warden Park Secondary Academy Schools also have school bus stops next to the pub. There is a new primary school to be built in Hurstwood Lane in the next few years. The town centre is 1.25 miles to the north where there is an extensive range of shops, restaurants, cafés and bars. The town also has a 6th form college and leisure centre.

The railway station is 2.3 miles distant and provides a fast rail service to London Bridge/Victoria (45mins), Gatwick Airport (15 mins) and Brighton (20mins). Wivelsfield railway station is located at the northern end of Burgess Hill and could be accessed on foot (1.8 miles).

Fox Hill (B2112) gives swift vehicular access to the neighbouring districts, Brighton and links with the A23 at Bolney/Warninglid and M25.
