About a half mile south of the North Chailey roundabouts is Delbury Cottages backing directly on to farmland and is close to the hamlet of Chailey Green with its interesting old Church, green and village primary school. Day to day amenities can be met at North and South Chailey, the latter having a popular secondary school and a local store/post office whilst the large towns of Lewes, Burgess Hill and Haywards Heath lie almost equidistant and are within a short drive providing comprehensive shopping facilities and leisure amenities.

Haywards Heath mainline railway station gives excellent access to London (Victoria/London Bridge approx. 45 minutes). Chailey Green is surrounded by beautiful countryside ideal for riding or walking.

DIRECTIONS: From our Newick office head west along the A272 in the direction of Haywards Heath until reaching North Chailey and at the second mini-roundabout in the village turn left by the petrol station heading along the A275 (south) in the direction of Lewes. Carry on down this road going past Beggars Wood Road on your left and the entrance to Delbury Cottages will be on your right.

Total area: approx. 99.9 sq. metres (1075.7 sq. feet)
