A fantastic terraced Victorian home offering character features throughout and ideally positioned in this much requested village setting.

The accommodation offers great charm with a light and airy feeling. The front door leads into an entrance hall, with generous under stairs storage and doors lead to a front aspect living room with original cast iron fireplace. To the rear of the property is a separate dining room with original wood floor. The kitchen is semi-open plan to the dining room and provides a good range of worksurfaces and base and eye level storage with a gas hob, electric oven, extractor hood, integrated fridge/freezer and space and plumbing for washing machine and dishwasher. Accessible from the dining room is a generous conservatory with wood burning stove as well as a useful utility area and an adjoining cloakroom.

Stairs lead from the entrance hall to the first floor landing, where there are two double bedrooms with the main bedroom at the front of the cottage enjoying an open outlook over fields. The spacious bathroom provides both a bath and separate shower cubicle. On the landing a pull down ladder provides access to a useful bonus space in the loft with skylight windows.

To the front of the property there is off road parking for one car whilst to the rear is a good size, south facing garden which benefits from a timber garden studio with power and behind the studio is extra shed space.

NB: There is the typical Victorian terrace right of way access across the back of the row of cottages which allows for occasional access if required.

Location:

Located in the very popular village of Grayswood lying about one mile to the north of Haslemere with a pretty village green, modern sports pavilion/hall, outstanding primary and junior school (Grayswood is a village school with small classes. We understand there is only one class per year), church and public house (currently closed) and surrounded by delightful countryside, that is ideal for outdoor pursuits including local walks, bike trails, horse riding etc . Haslemere is an attractive town with a good range of independent shops and boutiques, Waitrose and Tesco supermarkets, M&S Food Hall, restaurants and coffee houses and an excellent Health Centre. There are good road links to London and the south coast and Haslemere mainline station offers a fast train service to London Waterloo in around 49 minutes. There are excellent schools locally both state and private, for all ages and leisure facilities including The Haslemere Leisure Centre.
