King Edward VII Facilities

Built in 1901 and designed to be a tuberculosis hospital, the King Edward VII Sanatorium was officially opened by His Majesty King Edward VII on 6th June 1906, and heralded as one of the three finest hospital buildings of its time. Since then, through expert restoration, the vision has been to create a new and vibrant destination in the centre of a glorious location. Together with 165 acres of parkland with measured walks, the owner of No.88 will also get two allocated, secure underground parking spaces and access to a host of on-site amenities, including a concierge service, heated swimming pool, gym, and two exquisite communal rooms. With superfast broadband connectivity, every modern convenience is at your fingertips.

Situated three miles away, the thriving town of Midhurst resides on the Surrey and Sussex border. Full of listed buildings, attractive shops and narrow lanes, it's also blessed with charming hotels and restaurants. Discover more extensive havens of choice in nearby Haslemere and Chichester, while neighbouring Petworth has a variety of shops and National Trust parkland.
