Billingshurst is a thriving large village in the heart of West Sussex and surrounded by some fine countryside with a main line station to London (Victoria approximately 65 minutes) and the South Coast. Highly sought after schools in the locality from infant to sixth form with the Billingshurst Primary Academy School and then The Weald Community School. Leisure facilities with the Football Club, Cricket Club, tennis and bowls clubs, leisure centre with gym and swimming pool are all nearby. The centre, with its good range of shopping facilities including Sainsburys and Lidl, restaurants, pubs, library, post office, doctors' surgery, churches and bus services. The village provides good links with both Horsham and Gatwick International Airport. There is an abundance of history dating back to Roman times and many countryside walks on your doorstep.
