STEP INSIDE:

As you enter through the welcoming stone porch it leads into a spacious and light-filled entrance hallway, which is complete with a practical storage cupboard and elegant arched opening that sets a graceful tone for the home. From here, step directly into the impressive lounge, a generous and cosy focal point with a beautiful stone fireplace, large windows capturing the stunning valley outlook, and a patio door allowing you to open seamlessly to the rear terrace for effortless indoor-outdoor flow. An arched doorway connects through to the elegant dining room, perfectly suited for family gatherings or formal entertaining, with double patio doors leading out to the garden, lovely views over the gardens and forest beyond. Adjacent lies the bright and sociable kitchen/breakfast room – the true heart of the home – flooded with natural light from skylights overhead. It features cream cabinetry, black granite work surfaces, integrated appliances (oven, hob, extractor, dishwasher), and ample space for a central breakfast table, making it ideal for casual meals and morning coffees.

Off the main circulation areas, a versatile reception room (currently used as a bedroom) provides flexible space for a home office, playroom, or additional guest accommodation. Nearby, a further double bedroom benefits from fitted built-in wardrobes for excellent storage, while a handy utility room offers space for laundry appliances, sink, and extra storage. A separate storage cupboard and laundry cupboard add to the practical downstairs layout. Completing this level is a well-appointed bathroom with bath, separate shower cubical, wash basin, and WC. Finishing the ground floor is the principal bedroom, benefiting from an en-suite shower room for added privacy and convenience.

Descending down the stair to the basement level offers valuable additional space, currently arranged as a self-contained annex with a bedroom, En-suite shower room, and a study/storage room – ideal for guests, hobbies, gym, or potential further adaptation (subject to consents).
