The picturesque village of Slinfold lies midway between Billingshurst and Horsham (both have direct railway services to Victoria/London Bridge). The ancient St Peter's Church and the highly regarded C E Primary School occupy central locations. There is The Weald comprehensive school in Billingshurst, and Tanbridge House secondary school in Horsham, Pennthorpe and Farlington private schools are a short car journey away. There is a village store/post office and the well-patronised Red Lyon Public House. Bus services to Horsham and Guildford run through the village and sporting facilities include golf at Slinfold Golf & Leisure, football, cricket and tennis club.
