This side of town is popular with people working at the hospital, and there is going to be a new primary School built close by in the next few years off Hurstwood Lane. There are two primary schools within walking distance including Northlands Wood and St Wilfrid's. Children from this side of town generally fall into the catchment area for Oathall Community College in Lindfield. However, being over the county boundary into East Sussex, children can also go to Chailey Secondary School and Wivelsfield Primary (subject to availability).

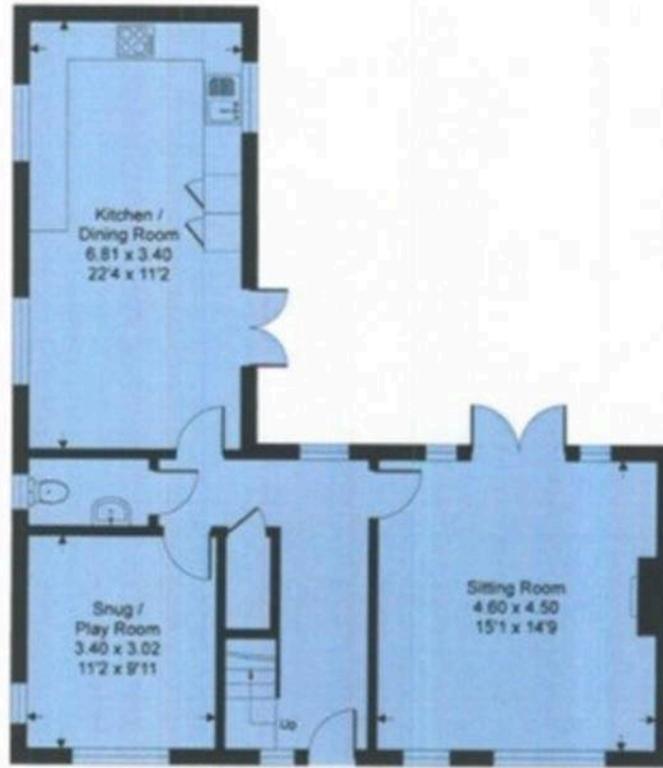

The town centre is just over a mile distant where there's an extensive range of shops, restaurants, cafes and bars. There is also a 6th form college, leisure centre and several supermarkets. The countryside adjoining the development is interspersed with footpaths and bridleways, linking with neighbouring districts and villages.
