The apartment itself is also a fantastic offering within the well regarded Moriconium Quay community. Situated on the second floor, this bright and well proportioned apartment enjoys an exceptional outlook across the central marina towards Poole Harbour. The living space is notably generous offering the scale to entertain comfortably, while remaining calm and easy for day-to-day living. Large windows and sliding doors draw in natural light opening onto a spacious west-facing balcony overlooking the marina, providing an interesting aspect to watch the daily comings and goings of marina life, against a backdrop of stunning sunsets reflecting across the water. Sitting naturally alongside the main reception space, is a separate fitted kitchen offering practical convenience.

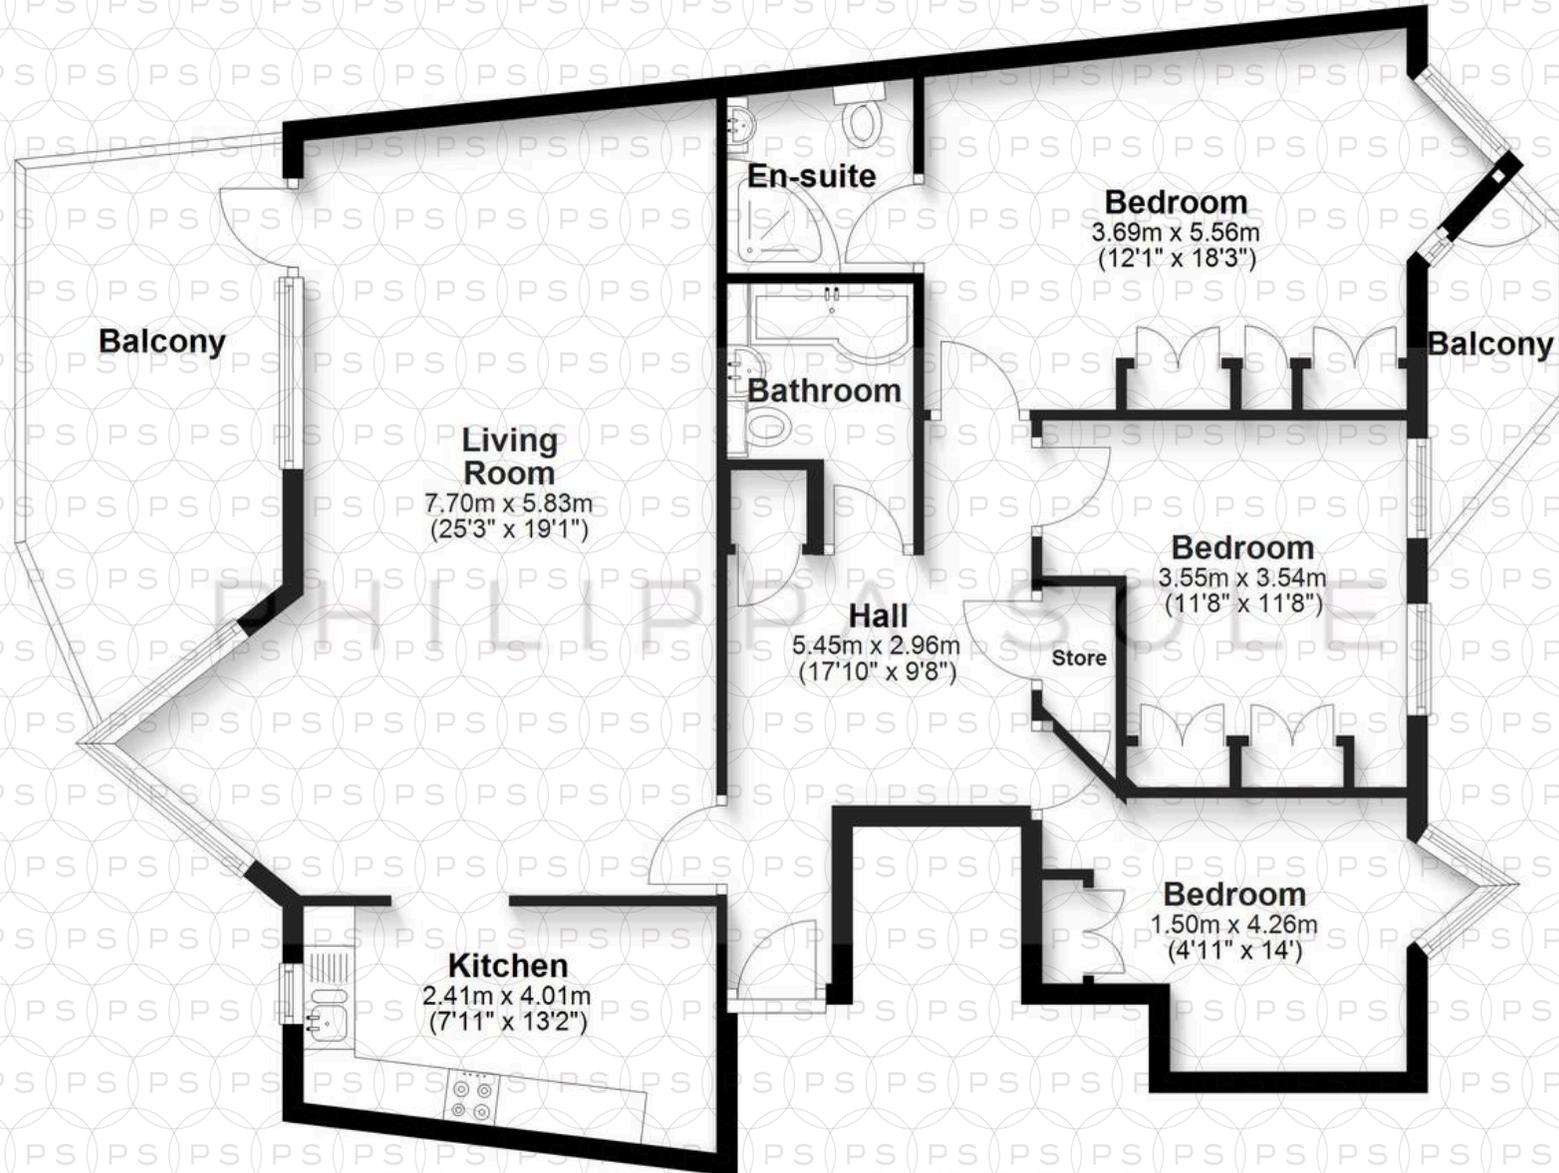

All three bedrooms are comfortable doubles with fitted wardrobes, giving the accommodation storage practicality. There is a second balcony utilised by two of the bedrooms, which adds an additional outdoor amenity and enhances the apartment's sense of openness. The principal bedroom is served by an ensuite shower room, while bedrooms two and three are positioned alongside a family bathroom, making the layout equally suited to permanent living, visiting guests or those wanting flexible space for work and weekends by the water.

Location:

Moriconium Quay sits directly on the shores of Poole Harbour and remains one of the area's most established private marina complexes. The popular waterfront Lake Yard restaurant is just 350 metres away, while family parks, beaches and nature reserves are all within 0.5 miles, offering green open space and easy access to the shoreline. Poole Quay and the old town are approximately two miles away, with a wide choice of restaurants, bars and marine side dining. Sandbanks and the harbour entrance are accessed directly by boat (or car), while Poole train station provides direct services to London Waterloo in around two hours. Ferry connections to France and the Channel Islands are also easily reached.
