There is a pleasant view to the front aspect as well as an archway giving sight through to the living area, allowing light to flow through the whole house.

Steps down lead to the living/dining room with French doors opening directly onto the rear garden with ample space for living room furniture and a small dining table and chairs. In addition, there is a staircase leading to the first floor with a recessed area beneath and a vaulted ceiling providing a sense of space to the mezzanine above.

Heading upstairs, there's a galleried landing with two useful storage cupboards and access into the bedroom and bathroom. The family bathroom is fitted in an attractive sleek white suite comprising of a panelled bath with wall mounted shower unit, WC, wash hand basin and a skylight. The bedroom is generous in size with two skylights overhead allowing in plenty of natural light. Built in sliding door wardrobes provide further useful storage and there is access to the loft.

Outside, there is a front garden laid to lawn with a footpath leading to the front door with entrance canopy. There is a handy secure storage cupboard beside the front door, which houses the gas and electric meters.

To the rear is a private rear garden, predominantly laid to hardstanding for easy maintenance with low level fencing to all sides. Enjoying a southerly aspect, this is a perfect area to relax in peace and quiet whilst capturing the sunshine. Furthermore, a gate leads to a secure communal garden purely for the use of the residents who back onto this area.
