Situated in a prime residential location just a short walk of Haslemere High Street and station. The property is accessed via a driveway leading off Bunch Lane and sits in the middle of a totally secluded, mature plot with landscaped garden that wrap around on all sides.

Built in 1974 and subsequently extended and modernised by the current owners the property comes to the market in excellent condition offering light and spacious accommodation with four bedrooms and three bathrooms. There is a triple aspect sitting room with wood burner and double-doors onto the garden, as well as a 17ft double aspect family room at the other end of the house. The 26ft kitchen/dining room is a superb space with excellent worktop space, storage and built-in appliances, which is further enhanced by a 12ft utility room with door to the garden. With two separate entrances the property provides a flexible layout that could work as two separate wings to provide a self-contained annexe.

The gardens are a real feature of the property with decked areas and covered patios providing numerous opportunities to sit outside and enjoy the privacy and tranquillity and there is also a garden room/home office.
