Auction Guide Price £265,000 – £275,000
Occupying a pleasant and appealing rural location, Glanrhyd comprises a 5.53-acre residential smallholding situated in the west Carmarthenshire countryside which offers considerable potential for further enhancement. The traditionally constructed two storey residence offers a wealth of character features but would now benefit from improvement. Affording well-proportioned living accommodation and 3/4 bedrooms being ideally suited as a family home.

Situation

Occupying a pretty rural setting two and a half miles or so from the rural village of Llanboidy. Carmarthen is considered the administrative town for the county and lies some 18 miles or so distant and provides a comprehensive array of commercial, educational and recreational facilities together with good rail links and road connections to the M4 corridor and the larger towns of south Wales.

Ground Floor

Side Porch

With tiled floor, radiator, window to the front, door to the rear, incorporating a 'belfast' sink, W.C. and a 'Worcester' wall mounted LPG fired boiler. Sloped ceiling with access to:

Living Room

Boasting a wealth of character features, the focal point of the room is the inglenook fireplace which houses a wood burning stove with beam above, window to the fore, radiator, open beamed ceiling and door to:

Kitchen

Overlooking the rear, affording a range of base and wall mounted units with complimentary work surface above, incorporating a 1.5 bowl sink and drainer unit, space for a freestanding cooker with ceramic hob and hood above, tiled splashbacks, door returns to the living room, access to under stairs storage, open beamed ceiling, radiator and door to:

Utility Room

Window to the rear, incorporating a 1.5 bowl stainless steel sink and drainer unit, tiled splashbacks, plumbing for an automatic washing machine, tumble dryer outlet and radiator.

Entrance Hallway

With radiator, stairs rise to the first floor, access to the front shelter porch and doors to

Sitting Room

Window to the front with open beamed ceiling and wood burning stove.

Landing

Window to the rear, loft access, radiator and doors lead to:

Bathroom

Comprising a separate shower cubicle with 'Mira event' attachment, the usual three-piece suite, radiator, partly tiled walls, window to the rear and also housing a shelved airing cupboard with hot water cylinder.

Bedroom 1

Overlooking the fore with radiator.

Bedroom 4

Box room overlooking the front with radiator.

Bedroom 2

Overlooking the fore with radiator and extensive built in wardrobes.

Bedroom 3

Overlooking the rear.

Grounds

Occupying a generous and level plot having the benefit of ample off-road parking to the front, the grounds are mainly laid to lawn and incorporate a variety of trees and mature shrubs. Ripe for further enhancement the grounds are ideally suited to all gardening enthusiasts and could once again become a very attractive feature. A small orchard is seen within the rear paddock and there is a second entrance from the council maintained roadway which leads to the rear garden.

Outbuildings

Nicely positioned to the side of the residence lies a collection of former outbuildings to include a former hayshed with lean-to which is now in a dilapidated condition and a former stone outbuilding again in need of rebuilding. Adjoining brick built former cowshed with slate roof and power connection, garage with sloping zinc sheeted roof which adjoins a store room and the side porch. Numerous former pigsties are located within the homestead. Ripe for improvement some of these buildings offer considerable potential subject to gaining the necessary consents.

Land

Extending in total to 5.53 acres or thereabouts in total, the homestead extends to 0.68 acres or so whilst the rear paddock extends to 1.50 acres or thereabouts and incorporates an orchard and polytunnel. Subject to good land management practices this area could be easily transformed into a productive paddock. The remaining land comprises a broadleaf woodland together with some areas of overgrowth that is suitable for clearing and returning to grassland. The Afon Tigen does border and meander through the woodland providing a magical setting which offers considerable environmental and amenity appeal.

Services

We understand that the property has the benefit of mains water and electricity together with a private drainage system. LPG fired central heating system. A well is located within the land.

Tenure: Freehold with vacant possession upon completion.
