TREND & THOMAS

A beautifully presented TWO DOUBLE BEDROOM FIRST FLOOR APARTMENT, situated in a gated town centre development, close to Rickmansworth station.

Designed for those who appreciate both functionality and aesthetic appeal, the property features a large entrance hallway with two ample storage cupboards, leading to a spacious living and dining area enhanced by elegant hardwood flooring, abundant natural light, and sleek modern lighting fixtures. Large sliding glass doors lead seamlessly to a private balcony. The well-appointed kitchen boasts contemporary units, integrated appliances, luxurious black marble-effect countertops, and warm wood flooring, providing an inviting space for every-day cooking. Two generously sized double bedrooms each benefit from large windows that flood the spaces with natural light. Bedroom one has built-in wardrobes and is further complemented by a private en-suite shower room and a separate modern bathroom.

Additional features elevate this flat into a truly desirable home. Residents enjoy access to a private gym within the complex, along with a concierge service and an allocated parking space. The building itself is part of a contemporary apartment complex with attractive architectural design, secure gated entrance, and meticulously maintained throughout.

With its combination of modern features, secure parking, private balcony space, and outstanding communal amenities, this flat represents an exceptional opportunity for buyers seeking both comfort and convenience in a vibrant, well-connected setting.

Positioned just a few minutes' walk from Rickmansworth Metropolitan/Chiltern Line station and around the corner from the Town Centre with its many restaurants, supermarkets, independent shops, library and theatre. The Aquadrome and other golfing and equestrian facilities are nearby, whilst the M25 can be reached via a short drive to junctions 17 or 18.
