LOCATION SUMMARY

Bluntisham is a popular village, located approximately 5 miles outside of St Ives and roughly 10 miles from Huntingdon's mainline train station which gets you in to London Kings Cross within the hour. In the other direction, Cambridge can easily be accessed via A14 or the guided busway from nearby St Ives. Bluntisham is served by the popular St. Helen's primary school which is located a short walk from the property whilst the catchment area for the secondary school is St Ivo Secondary School. The village also boasts other amenities with a convenience store, petrol station, local pub, hairdresser and for those that love the outdoors the RSPB Ouse Fen Nature Reserve is just a couple of miles from the property. Excellent walks can be accessed throughout the village and can often be found frequented by dog walkers and ramblers. The nearest town is St Ives which offers an array of shops, cafes, leisure centres and still hosts a market twice a week.
