Nestled between the Chiltern Hills and the Vale of Aylesbury, Princes Risborough combines countryside charm with excellent commuter links. The town offers a traditional High Street with independent shops, cafés and pubs, a strong community atmosphere, and access to beautiful walking and cycling routes, including the famous Whiteleaf Cross. Princes Risborough station provides regular trains to London in under 45 minutes, while nearby road links offer easy access to the M40 and surrounding towns. The town is also well served by regular bus routes linking High Wycombe and Aylesbury, making it convenient for local travel as well as commuting. Altogether, it's a sought-after location for those seeking a balance of rural beauty and modern convenience.

A modern detached home with attractive brick and flint elevations, set within a private road of just eight contemporary properties. The house benefits from driveway parking for two/three cars and a landscaped south-westerly rear garden.

The ground floor offers flexible living space, including an entrance hall, cloakroom, kitchen, sitting room, and dining room. The conservatory opens onto the garden and provides the option to add a solid roof solution, while the former garage has been converted into a den/snug, with potential to fully convert subject to the necessary consents. There is also scope to create a kitchen/dining room, allowing the space to be adapted to suit a variety of lifestyles.

On the first floor are well-proportioned bedrooms, including the principal bedroom, which benefits from a modern three-piece en-suite shower room, and a family bathroom, completing a practical layout for family living.

The property is conveniently located approximately 0.5 miles from Princes Risborough railway station, offering connections to London and Oxford, and within walking distance of local amenities, including pubs, a network of rural footpaths, and the secondary school. This home combines flexibility with a practical location, ideal for modern family living.
