Naseby is a superb family home set in the heart of Sandhills, one of the area's most sought-after hamlets, perfectly positioned between the villages of Wormley and Brook. Nestled within the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty and along the Greensand Way, this charming three-bedroom Victorian property offers an exceptional blend of character, comfort, and countryside living. The property sits in a unique location, enjoying a tranquil countryside setting whilst also being just a pleasant walk through woodland to Witley mainline station, offering direct services to London Waterloo in under an hour.

Occupying an elevated position, the home enjoys breathtaking southerly views across the Surrey countryside towards the South Downs. Inside, the accommodation is light-filled and welcoming, featuring an entrance hall with a combination of tiled and exposed wood flooring. The well-appointed kitchen overlooks the front, while the dining room to the rear opens through French doors onto the garden, perfectly framing the stunning views. The sitting room boasts a feature fireplace and an elegant box bay window, also taking full advantage of the outlook. A convenient cloakroom and separate utility room complete the ground floor.

Upstairs, three well-proportioned bedrooms are arranged off the landing, with the two rear rooms enjoying particularly impressive views. A family bathroom serves this level.

The rear garden benefits from a desirable southerly aspect, with a patio leading onto a lawn bordered by flowers and shrubs, complemented by mature trees and an area of natural planting. To the front, a driveway provides ample off-road parking, along with access to a garage.
