26 Farriers Way

Uckfield, Uckfield

A modern three bedroom link-detached family home, occupying a pleasant corner plot with a much secluded rear garden, driveway and attached single garage. Situated in a central position within walking distance of the town centre and railway station.

The property has been partly improved over the years and boasts a beautifully refitted kitchen/breakfast room with integrated appliances and a large breakfast bar. The living accommodation is a particular feature of the home, largely open plan with a spacious sitting room which continues through to a dining area and kitchen. The family bathroom has been refitted as a wet room and could easily be refitted with a bathtub if required.

The accommodation comprises in brief on the ground floor, an entrance hallway with cloakroom. A spacious sitting room with attractive bay window, fireplace and under stairs cupboard. A dining area with sliding patio doors opening to the rear garden and kitchen fitted with a matching range of white gloss units with a ceramic built in hob, oven and microwave.
