Situated on the highly sought-after Aldwick seafront, this impressive detached chalet bungalow presents a rare opportunity to acquire a spacious and versatile home in a prime coastal setting.

The property is located on a private road within a quiet cul-de-sac, ensuring a tranquil living environment with minimal passing traffic. Boasting four large bedrooms, the layout is ideal for families with each room offering ample space and flexibility. The highlight of the home is undoubtedly the expansive reception room, which features large windows framing uninterrupted sea views, creating a stunning backdrop for both relaxation and entertaining. The south-facing aspect ensures the living areas are flooded with natural light throughout the day, further enhancing the sense of space and openness. The property offers huge scope to extend (subject to the necessary permissions), providing potential to create additional living space or further enhance the existing accommodation to suit individual requirements. The well-proportioned kitchen and bathrooms are ready for modernisation, allowing the new owner to put their personal stamp on the interiors.
