Accommodation

Stepping inside, via the part glazed porch, the kitchen is in need of replacement, but offers the prospect of creating a kitchen/living/dining room if extended into the adjacent living room which has an open fire and access to the understairs cupboard. Any works would require any necessary consents. From the living room, two steps down to the front door and staircase. A second living room has more recently been used as a ground floor bedroom and has a disabled shower and WC.

Stairs lead to three double bedrooms and a family bathroom which, like much of the house, would benefit from updating to suit modern preferences. Throughout the home, you will find a layout that is both practical and versatile, offering plenty of potential for those wishing to personalise and add value.

Outside

There is off-road parking to the front, as well as a garden to the side, ideal for outdoor relaxation or further landscaping projects. A useful outbuilding is attached to the side of the house. The elevated position of the house ensures wide ranging views that can be enjoyed from several rooms.

Location

Sebergham is a picturesque rural village set within the scenic Caldew Valley in Cumbria, approximately 10 miles south of Carlisle and within easy reach of the northern fringes of the Lake District National Park. The area offers a peaceful countryside setting with attractive surrounding farmland and fells, while remaining conveniently located for access to the M6 and regional amenities. Nearby villages such as Caldbeck provide a range of everyday facilities including local shops, pubs and community services.
