A truly charming three-storey period cottage, beautifully arranged to provide bright, versatile and surprisingly spacious accommodation throughout, complemented by a delightful, secluded roof terrace and private courtyard garden.

The heart of the home is the impressive dual-aspect kitchen/family room, thoughtfully designed for both everyday living and entertaining. It features classic shaker-style cabinetry, an electric oven, gas hob with cooker hood, integrated dishwasher and generous worktop space with a breakfast bar peninsula, ideal for casual dining or social gatherings. French doors open onto a covered outdoor area, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor flow.

The triple-aspect sitting room, is bathed in natural light and offering an inviting yet airy living space. French doors open directly onto a secluded, walled wraparound courtyard garden, perfect for al fresco dining, entertaining, or simply enjoying a quiet retreat. The garden also benefits from double doors allowing access for off-road parking, a rare and valuable feature for a property of this type. A convenient ground-floor cloakroom completes this level.

The first floor hosts two well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. The principal bedroom benefits from its own en-suite shower room, providing a private and comfortable sanctuary.

On the second floor, a further bedroom enjoys a particularly special feature, French doors opening onto a secluded roof terrace.

Beyond this lies a highly adaptable informal annexe (formerly a garage), comprising a bedroom and en-suite shower room. This flexible space is perfectly suited as a home office, guest suite, additional bedroom, or even a self-contained Airbnb-style retreat, offering excellent potential for supplementary income or multi-generational living.

Overall, this characterful home effortlessly combines period charm with modern convenience, offering flexible living spaces both inside and out, making it ideal for families, professionals, or those seeking a unique property with income potential.
