Nord Vue Filling Station

Penruddock, Penrith

A Charming Detached Bungalow with Stunning Lake District Views

Occupying an elevated position on the outskirts of the highly desirable village of Penruddock, this attractive three-bedroom detached bungalow enjoys far-reaching views towards the Lake District mountains. Formerly part of the village filling station, the property now offers generous gardens, excellent parking for multiple vehicles, and well-proportioned accommodation throughout.

Upon entering through the front porch, you are welcomed into an L-shaped hallway featuring a spacious cloaks cupboard, loft access, and doors leading to all principal rooms. The dual-aspect living room provides a bright and comfortable space, complete with an electric fire set within a tiled surround.

The kitchen/dining room is also dual aspect and offers ample room for family dining. A contemporary fitted kitchen includes a range of wall and base units with complementary work surfaces and splashbacks, along with integrated appliances such as an eye-level oven and microwave, hob, extractor, and dishwasher. An electric fire within a stone and wood surround adds charm to the dining area. From the kitchen, a door leads to the rear hall/utility, where you will find the boiler, hot water cylinder, and space for laundry appliances and a fridge/freezer. The adjoining side sun porch provides a delightful spot to relax and enjoy peaceful views.

Externally, the property continues to impress. A good-sized driveway provides ample off-road parking, while attractive, largely low-maintenance gardens surround the home, featuring mature shrubs, trees, and a striking Monkey Puzzle tree. To the rear, there is access to a lean-to store/workshop and the oil tank. It is noted that the chimneys have not been closed off.
