36 Romford Road

Sale

Having undergone a comprehensive program of renovation, extension and enhancement by the current owners, to offer a truly exceptional and immaculate semi-detached bungalow, with extensive and versatile accommodation with a stylish contemporary theme throughout, whilst being set within a secluded cul-de-sac setting close to Sale, Ashton-on-Mersey village, popular schools, key transport links, and useful amenities.

The tone is set upon approach, with a generous landscaped front aspect with large sweeping driveway and maturely planted borders.

The intelligently remodeled home begins with a welcoming entrance hall with stylish LVT flooring, with a versatile ground floor layout including a large living/ dining room measuring over 22 ft in length with attractive herringbone design flooring, feature fireplace and double doors to the rear garden, whilst to the left of hall is the extended and refitted quality breakfast-style kitchen with two tone design including attractive Oak work surfaces and integrated appliances.

36 Romford Road

To the right of the hall are two versatile double bedrooms, with bedroom two being bay-fronted, and each room twinning as potential reception rooms/ home offices.

Off the hall is also a modern fitted shower room.

The newly created first floor with dormer extension provides a dedicated principal bedroom suite, being generous in size, enjoying pleasant views to the rear, and with an attractive ensuite bathroom with double shower, spa bath and stylish tiling.

The bungalow enjoys a large landscaped corner plot with a superb secluded rear garden with raised decking and idyllic tree-lined outlook over local fields.
