Lower Beeding is a charming village between the North and South Downs, south-east of Horsham and on the edge of St. Leonards Forest. The village centres around the Holy Trinity Church of England and excellent primary school, newly upgraded play park and a welcoming public house. Lower Beeding is home to the magnificent Leonardslee Gardens, a 240-acre estate featuring outstanding scenery for the perfect day out and quality dining. Close by, the exclusive South Lodge Hotel & Spa is a spectacular venue for alfresco afternoon tea with breath-taking views or dinner at a selection of outstanding restaurants. Two public houses within reach provide fine food and ambience. Mannings Heath offers a post office and Golf Club. The vibrant town of Horsham is alive with regular markets and an assortment of enticing shops. Horsham's transformation of Piries Place accommodates a contemporary Everyman cinema, reputable Brasserie White Company and impressive high-quality shopping. Familiar high-street and independent retailers, fine-dining and 5* spa hotels, pubs, ample parking facilities and a choice of supermarkets are at hand in and around Horsham, serving the lifestyle needs of the whole family. Horsham has an exceptional choice of schools in the area, with high Ofsted ratings and Collyer's college is a short walk from the town centre. Community facilities are in abundance with a well-stocked library and an array of leisure activities including rugby, football, cricket, gymnastics, dance and martial arts. For family fun, Horsham Park has significant attractions with a wildlife pond, swimming pools, tennis courts, café, aerial adventure, seasonal events and nature gardens. As a commuter town serving London, Gatwick and the South Coast, there are direct train links to all central and rural locations.
