This delightful Freehold semi-detached home boasts a wealth of character and charm, offering a truly unique living experience. Stepping inside, you are greeted by a welcoming ambiance with three bedrooms, one bathroom, and three spacious reception rooms, perfect for both family living and entertaining guests. The property features a traditional bay frontage, showcasing its original features that add to its allure. The welcoming hallway displays some beautiful authentic original features such as picture rails and the original front door is well preserved with its stunning stained glass. All three reception rooms are well proportioned and offers superb versatility for families. The downstairs WC is neatly positioned under the stairs and completing the excellent ground floor accommodation is the practical and functional kitchen which enjoys views across the rear garden. The newly installed boiler, which is tucked away in a useful storage room, comes complete with a peace of mind warranty which is certain to reassure any buyer. The first floor displays all the necessary sleeping arrangements in the form of three bedrooms, two of which incorporate a range of fitted wardrobes. The bathroom is separate to the WC but this will prove advantageous to busy family life. The expansive rear garden provides a peaceful retreat, while the extra-wide plot offers fantastic development potential, subject to obtaining the necessary planning permissions. To the front double gates lead to a single brick built detached garage which has purposefully been designed to accommodate caravans and taller vehicles and double doors at both ends of the garage provide excellent practicality. Between the garage and the house is a passageway in the form of a carport and a gate leads to useful patio area adjacent to the kitchen. The property has been retained by the same family for an entire generation and it presents a rare opportunity to own a piece of history in a sought after location. No Chain

The property is located a short distance from the village that offers a wide range of shops that meet every day needs. Bramhall has a good recreation centre and a wide variety of pubs, bars and restaurants. The schools in the area are for all age groups and have an excellent reputation. Bramhall and Cheadle Hulme railway stations offer convenient access to the Manchester city centre, along with the towns of Stockport and Macclesfield. The larger shopping centres of Handforth Dean and Cheadle Royal are only a short drive away along with a motorway network connection to Manchester International Airport.
