A major portion of this grand Victorian mansion of around 3320 sq ft with beautiful rooms of immense character including 2 wonderful living rooms, 5 bedrooms, 4 Bathrooms and grounds of around an acre situated at the end of a long gravel driveway on the rural edge of Haywards Heath and Lindfield. West Bedales is one of eight wonderful homes that would have once formed one large estate. The original estate is believed to date from 1577 and the current house was rebuilt in 1845 by a local man Stephen Lowdell who owned a stone quarry in neighbouring Scaynes Hill. Bedales school was founded here in the late 1800s and relocated to Petersfield. The house was also connected to the Slazenger Sport family and in the 1950s the main house was divided into separate wings.

Each of the eight properties own a section of the grounds and West Bedales owns the lawns directly in front of the house with a further section beyond which is fully enclosed by fencing and has a summer house with electricity and a Wi-Fi connection to provide a private area of garden for entertaining, adjoining the woodland and fields beyond.

Our clients bought the property from Mansell McTaggart approximately 11 years ago and have carried out numerous improvements, including the replacement of the kitchen, creating 2 additional bathrooms and replacing the other 2 bathroom suites, re-decorations and now present their home in wonderful order throughout.
